Application Process

1. Complete the International Application for Admission — Complete the following application for admission, answering all sections completely. You may also apply electronically by visiting the International Admissions website at www.uni.edu/intladm

2. Send Your Application Fee — Send a bank draft or money order in the amount of $50 (undergraduate) or $75 (graduate) made payable to the University of Northern Iowa. Credit card payments can be made for electronic applications at the time of submission. Money can also be wired using a service called Peer Transfer — www.peertransfer.com/school/uni

3. Submit Your Academic Transcripts — Educational transcript(s) or document(s) from your secondary and post-secondary institutions attended.
   - Unofficial documents can be submitted at the time of application. However, all official school transcripts, bearing the seal and signature of a school registrar, must be mailed directly from the institution to UNI before enrollment.
   - Academic/school records must show years of attendance, courses, grades, month and year of graduation and degree/diploma awarded.
   - All transcripts in a language other than English must be accompanied by an English translation.
   - Students applying for masters or doctoral programs must submit transcripts from all post-secondary institutions attended.
   - Transfer credit can be awarded for coursework completed at recognized institutions only on the basis of course descriptions (syllabi) in English.

4. Provide Proof of English Proficiency — All applicants who are not native speakers of English must submit proof of English proficiency.
   - Undergraduate students must submit one of the following:
     - TOEFL — 79 (internet-based)
     - IELTS — 6.0
     - SAT — 460 (critical reading)
     - Alternatives for undergraduate students can be found at www.uni.edu/intladm/english-proficiency
   - Graduate students must submit one of the following:
     - TOEFL — 79 (internet-based)
     - IELTS — 6.5
     - Some academic departments require higher scores — www.uni.edu/intladm/graduate/majors
   - Conditional Admission may be considered for undergraduate students and some graduate programs. These students will be tested for English upon arrival on campus and will be required to enroll in intensive English courses as necessary.
   - OUR ETS INSTITUTIONAL CODE IS 6307

5. Submit Other Test Scores — Graduate students are sometimes required to submit other test scores and supporting documents.

6. Financial Support Form — Complete the Financial Statement and Certification Form and send with supporting bank documents. If you are dependent on a graduate assistantship and tuition scholarship, you must submit this form and circle #4.

Send completed materials to:

Tuition Cost Sheet for the University of Northern Iowa

Yes, what you have heard is true—college does require a substantial financial commitment. But over a lifetime, it’s one of the best investments you can make. UNI is consistently ranked among the country’s “best buys” in higher education. Our tuition and room and board rates are among the lowest nationally.

All figures are estimates except for tuition, fees and insurance.
